

Island Sky

The Island Sky is an elegant and spacious 112 passenger expedition vessel with well-appointed suites and an array of public spaces, which passengers can use for wildlife viewing, relaxing and enjoying presentations and briefings.

All passengers will receive a complimentary expedition jacket upon embarkation.

The club features a bar and 24 hour tea and coffee station. Soft drinks, juices and water are available, as is a selection of liquors, spirits, beer and wine, which can be charged to your shipboard account. It's a great place to relax during the day or to enjoy listening to the resident pianist after dinner each evening. There is also a well-stocked library of polar books, computers, reference materials and general reading material. Meanwhile, the lounge can accommodate all passengers and serves as the main area used for presentations.

There is a medical clinic with an emergency doctor available 24 hours a day. There is also an on-board elevator to assist passenger's movement between decks.

There is one dining room, which serves 3 meals each day, specialising in world class cuisine with menus which change daily. Breakfast and lunch is generally served buffet style, whilst evening meals are served plated. Complimentary wine or beer is served with dinner. There is an assortment of fresh-baked cookies and pastries offered each afternoon and a selection of hot and cold snacks available in the lounge during cocktail hour.

There is a total of eight different suite categories, all of which are 220 square feet or more, have their own private bathroom facilities, exterior views, Mini-bar, hair dryer, telephone, sitting area, flat screen TVs and DVD players. The higher category suites also boast their own private balcony, champagne and chocolates on arrival, complimentary mini-bar and Nespresso machine.
